A filmmaker and novelist with a knack for conversation, Alan Flurry is the founding host and producer of Unscripted with Alan Flurry, where he ventures into politics, poetry, painting and philosophy with equal verve and ease. Two of Flurry's documentaries were shot in Italy, including the award-winning ARCO in Venice. He talked (and listened) his way through a nine-month mural project with the painter and musician Art Rosenbaum (COOL HAND

LUKE) to make the short documentary MURAL IN PROGRESS, in between Unscripted interviews with Paul Begala, Joseph Boyden, Xiaolu Guo and Anne Waldman. Living in Athens, one of his side gigs is actually as a musician. Flurry plays on the new Dave Marr album WE WERE ALL IN LOVE. He is married to artist Amy Flurry and is the proud father of two teenagers.
