After earning her BA in theatre arts, Betsy Moore performed with Shakespeare Santa Cruz. Her career in Southern CA started with the role of Connie in Tony 'n Tina's Wedding, leading to several stints in improv theatre. Work with experimental writer/director John Sinner led to successful productions at the New York and Amsterdam Fringe Festivals. Among her recent films, she is especially proud of her work in Sissy, a stunning short directed by Bonnie Root, and was awarded best supporting actress for her work in Light as a Feather. She played Joan in groundbreaking Bill and Joan at Sacred Fools followed by several performances at Son of Semele including the well reviewed and honored Love and Information.
