I've always been a storyteller. When I was little I would put on plays in my aunt's living room. Everyone would sit around in excitement and say "Danny, you're a star!" But it wasn't until I was 13 and auditioned for my school's production of Kiss Me Kate that I realized this was what I wanted to do for the rest of my life. As I stood on stage with those hot lights gleaming in my face, butterflies in my stomach, and a crumpled up piece of paper in my pocket (just in case I forgot my lines) I knew I found home.

Since then I've graduated from Marymount Manhattan College with a B.F.A. in Acting. In 2015 I made the leap and moved to Los Angeles to pursue my dream of being in film. I've also been in numerous films, national commercials, web series, and also work frequently with The Independent Shakespeare Company, based out of Atwater Village.
