

NICK MORRIS

Screenwriter

IMDb: Nick Morris

T: @NickBMorris

Nick often imagined what his own "perfect horror movie" would look like. Inspired by the fun and imaginative 80's fright-flicks he grew up watching over and over, he would go on to write UNDEATH, his first screenplay.

Shortly thereafter, UNDEATH would be named a ShriekFest finalist, as well as a R.I.P. Horror FilmFest finalist. Nick is thoroughly committed to seeing his dream realized on screen and is currently adapting UNDEATH into a TV series.

His first feature length screenplay is currently in development and scheduled to begin filming in 2018.

Nick is a loving husband, father of two and owner of an extensive collection of horror memorabilia that has been almost entirely relegated to the darkest corner of the basement.
